Security and Privacy Statement

Security

We understand that you value the security of your personal and credit card information. We apply the highest business standards and industry standard technology to ensure the security of your data to earn your trust.

Online Shopping

We secure our online transactions using, Secure Sockets Layer (SSL), the industry standard in ecommerce. The Verisign Payment Flow system ensure that all of your personal information, including credit card number, name and address, is encrypted and cannot be viewed as the information travels over the Internet. The shopping cart uses cookies to make your shopping experience more personalized and are only used to save you time when visiting again.

When ordering, a note is made of the IP address from which the order was placed and this is done for the security of the credit card holder.

Should we find that anybody tries to use a credit card fraudulently, a case of fraud may be opened and handed over to Interpol, to prosecute the matter in any country of the world in which they have representation and where the attempted fraudulent action took place.

Other Options

If you still do not feel comfortable shopping online, you can order by email, phone, fax or mail. When ordering, make sure to include your phone number, billing and shipping address. You may include a credit card number with expiration date or you can ask us to call you back to collect that information.

Privacy

We value your trust and the security of your personal and credit card information. Our pledge is simple - We guarantee that we will not share your personal information, e-mail or postal address to any third party.

Legal Notices

Accounts

The enhanced functionality of our new website allows us to serve you better. New and existing customers will have to register by placing your email address and selecting a password and password hint, in case you forget your password. This can be done during shopping or after shopping, during the checkout process. Existing customers may have some information already in place and will be able to edit this information. You may choose to have your credit card information stored on our secure servers.

Establishing accounts allows us to provide you better customer service, track your shipments and offer promotional discounts. In the future, we hope to establish our customer service center where you can manage your account online and track your orders. If you forgot your password and the password hint is not helpful, please call customer service.
